Kenneth Anger

THE SCHOOL OF THE ART INSTITUTE

The School of the Art Institute FILM CENTER is honored to present the Chicago Premiere of Kenneth Anger's LUCIFER RISING on Wednesday, April 25, 1973 at 6:45 PM in Fullerton Hall of the Art Institute.

Mr. Anger has come from his London home to visit his native United States. He is presenting this new, work-in-progress in Pittsburgh, Buffalo and Chicago.

His films are filled with rich, bacchanalian imagery and draw on satanic themes. Kenneth Anger first came to national attention in 1964 when he won a Ford Foundation Grant for his creative film work. He has been making films for more than twenty five years. His films were recently studied in the course, "Narrative as Religion" given in the School of the Art Institute by Brakhage.

The regularly scheduled Film Center program for April 25 (Parts 3 and 4 of SCENES FROM UNDER CHILDHOOD by Stan Brakhage) will be held in Price Auditorium at 5:30 and 7:30. The 5:30 performance will be over at 6:40. Those wishing to attend both programs may do so.

Tickets (one dollar each) may be purchased in advance at any Wednesday or Friday Film Center program.
